Skip & Dan Wilkins Quartet

Someday

Skip Wilkins has had a long relationship with the Deer Head Inn in the beautiful Poconos in Pennsylvania's Delaware Water Gap, the backdrop for this new CD. Skip & Dan Wilkins Quartet Someday (Deer Head Records) is a vibrant recording performed by this stellar quartet, each member a mainstay of the Deer Head Community.

"...It is a special delight to work on music with my son Dan. You could say that we both have old souls. We both love the canon – the Great American Songbook. We often exchange favorite old songs as well as favorite versions. I've written music for Dan that we've recorded on previous CD releases, keeping an ear out for what he does so well in writing those pieces. But this recording proceeded differently, because Dan and I selected the material together. In my career I have been fortunate to play and record with many great saxophonists both in the U.S. and in Europe, even including two NEA Jazz Masters. But for some music, you just have to grow your own saxophonist..."
